Laura Saïd newly elected to the Profond Foundation Board

Laura Saïd has been elected to the Profond Foundation Board as the new representative of Western Switzerland and represents the interests of the employees. The election of the designated specialist for occupational retirement benefits will continue to ensure consistency and expertise in the Foundation Board.

Laura Saïd was elected as a new member of Profond's Foundation Board in the general election and took office on 1 June 2024. She represents the interests of Western Switzerland and the employees. The designated specialist for occupational retirement benefits holds a Master's degree in actuarial mathematics and is Operational Manager at Ecole Supérieure en Prévoyance Professionnelle. She also shares her expertise as a lecturer at the University of Lausanne and at the Haute-Ecole Arc and acts as an associate judge at the Social Security Court of the canton of Vaud.

Laura Saïd says of her new mandate: "I am very pleased to provide Profond with my many years of experience in the field of occupational retirement benefits. As an associate judge at the Social Security Court, I also attach great importance to fairness and compliance with the statutory framework in the pensions sector."

Laura Saïd ideally meets the job requirements. Laurent Schlaefli, Managing Director of Profond, comments on the general election: "We are delighted with the election of Laura Saïd. With her excellent track record, consistency and expertise in the newly assembled Foundation Board will continue to be ensured".

Frédéric E. Goetschmann, who resigned to the end of the term of office after eight years on the Profond Foundation Board, was no longer a candidate in the general election. Profond thanks him for his long and dedicated commitment.

About the Profond Pension Fund

Profond is one of the largest independent collective foundations in Switzerland with around 70 000 insured members and assets under management of CHF 12.2 billion as of the end of April 2024. Profond follows a real value-oriented investment strategy with the goal of achieving long-term, above-average returns on the pension fund assets of its insured members. Profond employs around 100 people at its locations in Zurich and Lausanne.
