Confirmation

By signing, the insured person confirms that the employment relationship has been terminated by the employer and that he/she is aware of and acknowledges the following:

- The regulatory employee and employer contributions (including the contribution for administration costs) must be fully paid by the insured person. The contributions are paid quarterly.
- Once the continued insurance has lasted for more than two years, an early withdrawal or pledge is no longer possible and the retirement benefits must be drawn as a pension.
- Voluntary continued insurance is not applicable to cross-border commuters. Only those individuals domiciled in Switzerland or, alternatively, subject to the AHV may take out continued insurance. Profond must be notified if the insured person's place of residence is moved abroad during the period of continued insurance.
